

USC INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY MEAL PLAN

USC Hospitality offers an exclusive meal plan for International Academy students. The International 60 Meal Plan can be used in any of three all-you-care-to-eat cafeterias inside the USC campus. Residents of Parkside Apartments are required to have the International 60 Meal Plan. Students who are part of a special group may also be required to purchase a meal plan.

THE INTERNATIONAL 60 MEAL PLAN ($660) INCLUDES:

- 60 meals
- Meals at three cafeterias inside the USC campus
- Meals conveniently accessed using USC ID card
- Meals are active from date of arrival/purchase until the end of summer
- Exclusive meal plan only available to USC International Academy students

DINING OPTIONS

Everybody's Kitchen

EVK is the oldest and most popular cafeteria on campus. Near Leavey Library and McCarthy Quad, this cafeteria is just a three minute walk away from the USC International Academy.

EVK American home-style meals that will leave you satisfied. On theme nights, they transform their dining room and offer entertainment! Don't forget to dress in theme and participate in the costume contest!

Parkside Restaurant & Grill

Parkside Restaurant & Grill is conveniently located on the first floor of Parkside International Residential College, a few steps away from Parkside Apartments.

The chefs prepare their favorite classic recipes daily, with a special focus on international gourmet food. Parkside Restaurant can accommodate special food needs, such as gluten-free and vegan.

Café 84

Café 84 was created to feed athletes during the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles. Recently, Café 84 was remodeled and became an all-you-care-to-eat cafeteria that focuses on health. To meet the needs of students who request healthier meals, Café 84 recently introduced a new menu full of health-promoting meals made with fresh whole foods and simple ingredients, but still full of flavor and variety.

Like EVK, Café 84 also has theme nights with entertainment and special menus from the chefs. Be sure to dress in theme to enter their costume contests!
