

SPRING B 2018 ACTIVITIES AND CULTURAL IMMERSION

FRIDAY, MARCH 2

The Hollywood Experience

Enjoy a half-day of sightseeing and experience some Hollywood highlights like legendary movie palaces and celebrity stars on the Walk of Fame. And yes, you will get to see the Hollywood Sign from here!

(Free. Students pay for Metro)

SATURDAY, MARCH 3

26th Motion Picture Costume Design Exhibition and LA Live

Join the in exhibition experience that has become a Los Angeles tradition! See the costumes from 2017's most popular films, including the Oscar's nominees for Best Costume Design and then walk over through South Park to LA Live.

(Free. Students pay for Metro)

FRIDAY, MARCH 9

Original Farmer's Market and The Grove

If you're looking to shop in one of L.A.'s most popular outdoor malls, look no further than a trip to The Grove. From Coach to the GAP, you can shop until you drop. When you're ready for a break, visit the Farmer's Market next door, where you can enjoy food from 100 different gourmet merchants and grocers.

(Free. Students pay for Metro)

SATURDAY, MARCH 10

La Brea Tar Pits and Museum and LACMA

Bubbling tar pools that harbor amazing Ice Age specimens like mammoths & saber-toothed cats. Famous LACMA and its gorgeous art are also next door to explore. Bring your USC ID for free entry.

(Free. Students pay for Metro)

SATURDAY, MARCH 17

Runyon Canyon Hike

End your spring break on an inspiring note. Spend a day in nature and explore the Runyon Canyon Park, one of the most popular hiking destinations in L.A. Rise above the city lights and take pictures!

(Free. Students pay for Metro)

FRIDAY, MARCH 23

Workshop: Finding Your Voice

Do you want to learn how to express your viewpoints in the academic setting, develop your confidence and become a successful public speaker? Join our Finding Your Voice Workshop here in DCC.

(Free)

SATURDAY, MARCH 24

Explore Downtown LA

Experience the true authentic, urban vibe at Grand Central, the city's oldest and largest public market that offers diverse foods. Let's grab some lunch, explore the Grand Central Park, find a vibrant garden inside of the city's urban heart and take a ride on Angels Flight.

(Free. Students pay for Metro)

FRIDAY, MARCH 30

Workshop: Stress Management

Are you feeling overwhelmed with finals knocking on the door? We can help! Join our workshop and learn how to manage and reduce stress in your daily life.

(Free)

SATURDAY, MARCH 31

Old Town Pasadena and the Norton Simon Museum

From the rare collection of Picasso's art in the Norton Simon Museum to the diverse boutiques of Old Town, the City of Pasadena mixes vintage sophistication with newfound adventure. Experience it now!

(Free. Students pay for Metro)

FRIDAY, APRIL 6

West Side Story Musical

Don't miss a chance to see one of the most heart-wrenching musicals of our times! A 1950s New York City version of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, the performance is organized by the USC School of Dramatic Arts here on campus.

($10)

SATURDAY, APRIL 7

Exposition Park

Immerse yourself in cultural, entertainment and educational activities within walking distance of USC Campus! Visit the Natural History Museum, California Science Center Exhibits and enjoy the the City of Los Angeles Rose Garden. Bring your USC ID for free entry!

(Free)

FRIDAY, APRIL 13

Study Night

Come to DCC, find a quiet corner and prepare for your final exams! Light refreshments are provided.

(Free)

FRIDAY, APRIL 20

Spring B Closing Picnic

Come and say goodbye to your friends who are graduating!

(Free)

SATURDAY, APRIL 21

Los Angeles Times Festival of Books

Do you consider yourself a book lover? Have you ever wanted to engage in the conversation with a writer? Join us for the largest book festival in the country which is held right here on USC campus.

(Free)

SIGN UP:
STUDENT SERVICES DESK
USC INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY LOBBY